

A careful man I ought to be;
 The little children follow me.
 I do not dare to go astray
 for fear they'll go the self same way.
 Not once can I escape their eyes;
 Whate'er they see me do they'll try.
 Like me they say they're going to be-
 that little child who follows me.
 I must remember as I go through summer sun and winter snow, I'm molding for the years to be
 that little child who follows me.

Thank you dear Dad, for the wonderful example you were for all of us.
 We love you Dad!

Friends may visit www.eversonfh.com to share remembrances of Raymond.

Ray, son of Lars and Regina Larson, was born on October 9, 1928, in Fargo, ND. He was raised on the family farm in Mont Township and graduated from Williston High School in 1946.

On July 10, 1949, Ray was united in marriage to Leona Urdahl. They lived and raised their family in the Williston area.

Ray had many talents and jobs. He worked in a Williston Body Shop, dug sewers for Njos Brothers and was a salesman for the Conklin Company. He was a very good mechanic and worked from his farm shop for neighbors and friends. He built some of his own machinery. Ray built a rammed earth home which we enjoyed for many years. He was a talented musician, played accordion and sang bass in many singing groups, traveling around the country.

Ray was a member of the Lutheran Brethren Fellowship Church where he had been an elder and Sunday School teacher. He was a member of the Gideons.

Ray is survived by his wife, Leona of Williston; three sons, Gary Larson of Williston, David (Julie) Larson of The Villages, FL, James (Susan) Larson of Williston; three daughters, Val (Stan) Oxendahl of Spokane, WA, Naomi (Orlin) Rogness of Lakeville, MN, Carla (Ron Oster, fiancée) Thompson of Williston; fifteen grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; three brothers, Glenn (Barbara) Larsen of Stuttgart, AR, Merlin (Judi) Larsen of Spearfish, SD, and Loren (Mary) Larsen of Chula Vista, CA; one sister, Lylas (Eldore) Gilje of Rolette, ND; two brothers-in-law, five sisters-in-law and by many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, five brothers-in-law and one sister-in-law.

"Well done, good and faithful servant...
Enter into the joy of the Lord."

Matthew 15:21

RAYMOND C. LARSON

YOUR SMILE

Though your smile is gone forever
and your hand I cannot touch,
I still have many memories
of the one I loved so much.
Your memory is my keepsake,
With which I'll never part.
God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.
