TO MY BELOVED CHILDREN

Our Lord came down to visit,
And said, "Now I'll take you home,"
To be with all your loved ones,
Beside his golden throne.

Weep not for me today
Feel joy within your hearts,
'Twas the will of God,
That on this day we part.

To all of you my children,
You filled my heart with love,
Now once again I'll walk hand in hand
With your father up above.

In Memory of RAMONA ST. PETER

Ramona (Amaryillis) Ann St. Peter was born in Valley City, ND on June 6, 1929 to Herman and LaVisa (Ryerson) Marler. At the age of seven the family moved to Miles City, MT. She attended grade school and graduated in 1947 from Custer High School.

On February 26, 1949 she married her beloved friend and sweetheart, Jack St. Peter. God gave to this union six children, Jack, Jr., Tana, Mark, Kirk, Lisa and Myia. They moved to Williston in 1956.

Ramona started dance training at the age of five. She trained under teachers in Valley City, Billings and Denver, teaching children's tap and jazz classes. She operated Ramona's School of Dance for thirty-two years in Williston and Tioga, ND, Sidney, Wolf Point, Scobey, Plentywood, and Glasgow, MT. She introduced the first clogger in the states of North Dakota and Montana. She and Jack operated the Bow Wow Boutique until she retired in 2003.

Her great love was for the Lord, her husband and children, and working with children and pets, She loved to bake and shared her pies and caramel rolls with many friends and family through the years.

Ramona was preceded in death by her beloved husband of fifty-three years, Jack, Sr., daughter Tana Harper, son, Jack, Jr., grandsons, Ethan Clark and Brock St. Peter, four brothers, Bob, Al, James and Joseph Marler; and her parents.

She is survived by her son, Mark (Gail) St. Peter and their son, Ben, of Williston; son, Kirk (Renee) St. Peter and their children, Rikki and Jared; daughter, Lisa (Scott) Clark and their children, Jacob and Jordan of Williston; and daughter, Myia St. Peter of Williston; grandchildren, Tiffany and John Harper (daughter and son of Tana) and Seth and Michelle St. Peter (son and daughter of Jack, Jr.); three great-grandchildren, Tava, Denzel, and Alysea; four step-grandchildren, Jake, Marshall, Lizzy and Bethany; and six step-great-grandchildren, Macie, Morgan, Dylan, Logan, Adrian, and Braxton.
